SSC Job Profile

Important points about Banking and SSC exams

- Banking exams are conducted online & SSC Teir-1 & Tier-2 conducted online & Tier-3 is offline or Pen-paper based.
- Although the time duration for attempting bank and SSC exams is two hours, yet the number of sections is different. Moreover, bank exams have sectional cut-offs but SSC considers overall cut-off.
- Banking awareness is a distinct feature of bank exams. SSC exams may have questions related to monetary policy, static GK and current affairs.
- Questions from non-verbal reasoning don't appear in bank exams. Similarly a substantive number of questions from Computers and Marketing do appear in many bank exams, unlike SSC. In SSC students may not be expect more than a couple of question from Computers and none from marketing.
